

Blackboard Rel. 9.0: Adding Content

Create Item

Build ▾

Evaluate ▾

Collaborate ▾

When Edit Mode is turned ON, in each content area you will find the above menu bar. Each of these drop-down menus reveals how to add content to your course site.

Create Item offers the ability to upload documents

Create Item

Click here to upload a document, such as Word documents, PDF files or a Power Point presentation.

Build gives you navigation options

Build ▾	Evaluate ▾	Collaborate ▾
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Create Folder > Create External Link > Create Course Link > Create Learning Module > Create Syllabus > Create Module Page > Link to Tools Area > Link to Offline Content 	A Folder is a way of organizing content items. An External link is a shortcut to a Web resource. Course link -Links to another location in the course. A Learning Module is a set of Content Items with a path for progressing through the items. Create Syllabus - Wizard to help create your syllabus Module pages are customizable pages that contain any number of interactive elements. Provides a direct link to tools such as the Discussion Board. A direct path to a specified file on a drive, usually a CD-ROM.

Evaluate opens the Assessment features

Evaluate ▾	Collaborate ▾
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Create Test > Create Survey > Create Assignment 	Create or Add a Test Create or Add a Survey Create an Assignment link for students to submit work

Collaboration opens the Communications Features

Collaborate ▾
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Create Discussion Board Link > Create Chat > Create Virtual Classroom Link > Create Groups Link > Create Blog Link > Create Journals 	Create a link to a Forum on the Discussion Board. Create a Chat room for students. Sets up A Virtual Classroom where users may engage in a real-time discussion with other users. Sets a link where students can access an assigned group. Also allows the creation of new groups. Sets a link where students can access the class Bblog. Also allows the creation of new Blogs Sets a link where students can access their Journal. Also allows the creation of new journals.